ART CLASS FOR HANDICAPPED CHILDREN AT THE CLEVELAND MUSEUM OF ART

"Handicapped Children Participating in the Arts" is a new summer arts program offered by The Cleveland Museum of Art for handicapped children between the ages of seven and ten.

The program is designed to help young handicapped people gain confidence in creating their own paintings, drawings, weavings, masks, sculptures, and environmental designs.

Registration for this special art museum program begins on Friday, June 8th.

For further details, contact the Museum's Department of Art History and Education at 421-7340, extension 376.
